In the case of events organized in cooperation with associations or business partners, the data will also be transferred to them for the purpose to organise the event and advertise products and services in connection with the event.

In order to carry out certain processing activities in connection with the stand registration (in particular some special services, dispatch of documents, customer surveys, hosting and IT support, data management, digital event platform and app) external service providers are used which process the personal data on behalf of Messe Berlin (so-called "processors").

5. Data transfer to third countries

Some of the foreign representatives, companies of the Messe Berlin group of companies and processors are located in third countries outside the EU, which do not provide the same level of data protection as the EU, in particular due to the absence of a legal framework, independent supervisory authorities or data protection rights and remedies. Messe Berlin will only transfer personal data to those third countries if the European Commission has adopted a so-called adequacy decision in this respect (Art. 45 (3) GDPR) or otherwise where appropriate safeguards in accordance with Art. 46 GDPR have been provided, in particular standard data protection clauses adopted by the European Commission pursuant to Art. 46 (2) (c) GDPR and, where necessary, supplementary measures. A copy of the safeguards can be obtained upon request (e.g., by e-mail – for contact details see section 1 above). The data transmission to foreign representatives, other users of the digital event platform, website visitors as well as Third party social media providers is necessary for the performance of a contract (Art. 49 (1) (b/c) GDPR); otherwise, it takes place on the basis of explicit consent despite the lack of adequate data protection in the third countries outside the EU and the risks associated with it (Art. 49 (1) (a) GDPR).

Stored personal data will be erased once they are no longer needed for achieving the relevant purpose of their processing. Insofar as processing is based on consent or based on a legitimate interest of Messe Berlin, the data concerned will no longer be processed for the associated purpose after receipt of the withdrawal of consent or the objection and, if applicable, will be deleted, unless there are statutory exceptional circumstances.
